..and what you missed

Derby Day

Another enjoyable day, even the weather could not dampen our spirits. Everyone had a great day, again there more losers than winners Our thanks must go to Sandra for the wonderful food she provided; and so on to 2010, the date is Saturday 5th June and the price will be about £60 a head but includes transport, entrance and food and drink. Interested, please see me for further details - Tom Harris

Barbecue

Another hot and sunny day, which complemented the excellent food on offer. Games for the kids and an alfresco disco for the older kids all mixed up with plenty to drink. Want more could you want on a hot summers Sunday. Very many thanks for your support - Sandra

I may hold another BBQ this year on Sunday 30th August - anyone interested let me know - Sandra

Bowls

The Bowls Committee are pleased to welcome the new members from St Elpheges's. Already they are playing to reasonable standard to the extent that they helped out when we have been short of players on the week-ends. Never satisfied, some more members would be welcome, so come along any Tues & Thurs from 6.00 pm (go on give it go - your'll never know what you have missed unless you try) - Kay Crush
